Culinary club is looking for new members. Come share some of your ideas, and cook with us. For more information see Miss Rashida at Youth Services.

The West Point 4-H Crusaders will be working on step stools and chair painting incorporating a unique theme to them. The 4-H youths will be putting their step stools together using a power screwdriver and drill bit. A power sander will be on hand to take out the imperfections in the wood. Everyone will get a step stool to personalize using arts and crafts to embellish their theme as they see fit. The chairs will be displayed at the visitor center. They will also be entered into the fine arts exhibit, as well as the Orange County Fair for the 4-H exhibit. If interested please contact Marion DeClemente at Youth Services. 938-8889 or E. Marion.DeClemente@usma.edu

"Got a Half and Hour?" "Come on get involved with or community! Be a leader, share ideas"... Join Torch Club. Meetings beginning Monday, November 2nd, and 16th, 3 p.m. at Youth Services. For more information contact Christine Kirk. 938-8525

Tutor.com

Army affiliated students (military and children of Army civilian employees) can receive free Tutoring on tutor.com. Just go to www.myarmyonesource.com to submit a one time registration to obtain their CYSS pass code. Students and tutors work together in an online classroom using controlled chat and an interactive white board. Students can send computer files, such as essays, to the tutor for review and assistance. Tutors are certified teachers, college professors, professional tutors or graduate school students from across the country. If you have school related questions or are interested in finding out more about tutor.com, please contact, Jodi Cabrera at 845-938-8899 or
